They made the long trip in covered wagons pulled by oxen. Land at that time could be had from the Government very cheaply and Adam became a large landholder, although he also raised many small truck crops. He was especially noted for his sweetpotatoes and took first premium on them in the first Buchanan County Fair held in September, 1854. He was a very active and energetic man and is remembered by older members of the family, a restless figure astride a yellow pony. Mary died about 1836 in Owen County, Indiana. Their children:

THE DITTEMORE FAMILY

I think you will agree with me
It's a task to find old history,
And write it down where all can see
Where we belong on the Dittmore Tree.

GENEALOGICAL RECORD

1. JOHN DITTEMORE Tradition has it that our ancestor, John Dittmore or Ditmore was born in Nurnberg, in Southern Germany. The first record we can find of him in America is when he enlisted in the Revolutionary War. The record in the Office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts states: When John Ditmore enlisted in 1779 he gave the following information; age, 47 years, birthplace Germany, residence Boston, stature 5 feet, 6 inches, complexion dark, hair dark, occupation laborer. He died of fever at camp at West Point during the war. The records of the U. S. Adjutant General's office show that John Ditmore served in the Revolutionary War as a private in Captain Robert Alien's Company, Captain Jonas Parker's Company and in a company designated at various times as Captain William Hudson Ballard's and Captain Asa Coburn's Company, 7th Massachusetts Regiment commanded successively by Colonel Ichabod Alden and Lieut. Colonel John Brooks. He enlisted March 7, 1778 for three years, and his name is last borne on the company muster roll for April, 1781, dated West Point, May 1, 1781, with the remark: On duty.

Reference to John Dittmore's enlistment is also made in the published record of the Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors of the Revolution. No claim was made for a pension or for bounty land on the military service of John Dittmore.

We do not know the name of John Dittmore's wife and our record now turns to Michael Dittmore, his son.

SECOND GENERATION

NEWS

2. MICHAEL DITTEMORE was born in 1763. He married Elizabeth (last name not known) who was born in 1770. We have only a meager record of the movements of the family prior to 1815 but we know they lived for some time in Greene County Tennessee, where Henry (No. 15 of this record) was born. In 1815, Michael and Elizabeth and their family settled in Owen County, Indiana. In June, 1829, Michael bought 50 acres of land from Ephriam Goss and Abner Alexander on which he built a double, two-story log house, which was considered the finest in all that part of the country. This land is now known as the Sanders Addition to the town of Gosport. Michael was a farmer but from about 1829 to the time of his death he dealt in real estate as we have a number of old deeds conveying property in and around Gosport. Elizabeth died Oct. 6, 1837, and Michael July 11, 1839. Both are buried in the Old Union Cemetery near Gosport, Indiana.

John, no doubt, moved to Indiana in 1815 with his father Michael. John and Sarah are buried in the Old Gosport cemetery. John died in May, 1839. They had ten children.

In 1840 Henry and Elizabeth came to Missouri settling in Buchanan County on the farm he owned all his life.

It was on the old stagecoach line from St. Joseph to Weston and Henry built his log house across the road from the stage station which was on the land of Judge Dunning, a friend of Henry's, with whom Henry and family had stayed until they built their log house. This land, which he preempted from the Government, was heavily timbered from which Henry built his cabin and split the rails to fence his entire farm. He made much charcoal and his older children took their turns in watching the charcoal mounds, large pyramids of logs covered with earth to keep the wood from completely burning to ashes. Henry was an industrious and prosperous farmer and owned several farms. He was a Republican and a member of the Bethel Christian Church.
